It is actonishing how ready Copperhead liters still are to spoland anything said by beis or to ceneure or cordemn the loval peo ple of the North. Gen. Scott, the other day wrote another stupid letter—the most studio and silly thing he has written sluce his retire ment—but it is a precious "crumb of com-lort" to some of the Northern Copperheads, it is his note to the New York Committee, excusing himself from participating in the cei-bration last Monday of our army victoties, and is as follows:
New York, March 3.

Hon, C. P. Daily, Chairman, &c .: Hon. C. P. Daily, Chairman, &c..:

DEAR SIE: I regret, on account of debility, I cannot take part in the grand celebration of to-morrow, as I sincerely rejoice in our victories over rebels, which, with others impending, cannot fail soon to bring back into the Union, on terms of perfect equality in rights and duties, the outstanding States. Recip coal respect and admiration have sireedy, by the dint of hard fighting, been established between the gallant veterans of the opposing armies, and this noble sentiment gives the hope that it may conquer the miserable hatred as general between non-combatants—Secossionists and Unionists. This, indeed, would be the great conquest of the day. I remain, with high respect, yours truly,

There is nothing of intrest transpiring here, loyal ones who have endured all the herd-ships of retaining a love for the Union in the bils of their adversities, upon whom he invokes the hatred which he erroneously ascribed to them. Propular among the Confederates, and repeatedly precised by Congress, the nomination of that general to the army of the Carolinas would never have been acquiesced in, and received his sauction, had not General Bean regard insisted upon it, giving for reasons that the prestige of Johnston's name would bring under the Confederate flux thousands of soldiers who would otherwise remain at home. This nomination, I understand, was not the work of General Lee, who took no part in it. It is simply dus to the pressing requests of Gen. SHERMAN'S MARCH NORTH OF COLUMBIA TO DE-

The march of Sherman upon Columbia not only deprived the rebei army of its usual sup ply of food, but raised immediately the quessideration, as long as the fear existed in Gen.
Lee's staff that the Rederal army would proceed directly from Columbia to C: ariotte, and trace en pon the capital of the rebel ion. No doubt if General Sherman had taken that rome at that time the fall of Richmond would have immediately followed. But when it was sacernaized that he had no intention of that kind, for the present, and that he almed at some point on the ocean, the idea or giving no that city, then strongly on the ascendant, subsided. Today the determination is to hold Richmond at se. But at the time I speak of, when Gen. Jebes on's forces were not yet organized, and when Beauregard was rapidly retreating, the idea of evacuating the city was pretty generally culertained. Prolimnary measures had been taken to that effect, such as the transcotation of heavy gats from Petersburg, on the west of R chmond, and the removal of the State srchives and arsenal to Lyochburg. But every idea of that kind has been abandoned, and the rebels are more confident than ever in it forever. REBEL CPINION OF SHERMAN'S CAMPAIGN.

The opinions of the rebeis about Sherman's campaign are various. NEW YORK, March 16. The panic in the gold market has settled nto comparative quiet. There is vary little proulative movement, and some of the operore who were unable yesterday to meet their gagements are on their fret again to day, or price has fluctuated between 175% and

The Times' Weshington special says that the statement that General Harlan had not yet decided to accept the Interior Department, was premature; the President had his assent hefore he sett his name to the Senate.
The Commercial says the opinion prevails in well informed circles that the assistant treasurer of New York has been anthonized by Secretary McCalligh, to enticipate the year. Secretary McCul'och to anticipate the payment of May compone, 5-20%, at his option, whenever, in his option, the state of the money market warrants the step.

WASHINGTON, March 16. Washington, March 16.

Information from the Army of the Polo mac says the Filth corps was revised on Thesday by Gen. Warren. This corps is one of the largest in the arrily, and in regard to discipline stands second to none. The mimor diligence is exercised by the commanding officers ja praparing for the spring campaign. Passengers just from Ci y Point say there was not even a rumon at that pince of prace commissioners from Richard, as wes in dustriously circulated elegabers yesterday. The Vance who strived there was Brig Gen. Vance, brother of Gov. V. of North Circling, to be exchanged, and not Gov. V. himself, as peace commissioner, with two colleagule.

Gen. Longstreet has placed restrictions of the exchange of newspapers, permitting only the exchange of newspapers, permitting only date for date; but some of the rebel editors say they will endeavor to have the order modified. Many of the sick of our army have been

New York, March 16. The following is additional by the steamer Africa:
The Dally News says there is some prespect of shipments of gold being made to New York, owing to the flatness of exchange.

The Secretar Fronte has issued an address to The news per the Australian of the fall of Charleston, caused much sensation. Its immediate affect was the edvance of two per cert, in United States bonds and a decline of four per cert, in the Confederate lean.

The London Times says the influence of the success at Charleston can be hardly exaggerated. The moral effects cannot but be most, powerful on the conduct of the war. It is seen that the population of the southeastern States is not able to cupose the march of the Beccus that the population of the southeastern States is not able to appose the merch of the Federal armies. The Army and Navy Gezette says the evacuation of Charleston and Columbia and the concentration of the garrisons will strengthen the hardes of Beauregard, Hardes and Hill, but the Confederates are placed in a position of excessive danger from which it will require greater genious than ever Lee and Davis have as yet displayed to extricate them.

The purpose of Grant becomes more and more ouvicus as the camplan proceeds. He holds Lee fast and this paralyzes the strongest army and neutralizes the greatest force of the Confederacy. The news was published too late on the 3d for the Liverpool and Manchester markets, but the first effect was one of deprecion and cotton declined.

FINANCE AND TRADE CFFICE OF THE LOUISVILLE DEMOCRAT.

There was an market for anything to-day, and holders found it utterly useless to attempt making sales of any magnitude. The while business transacted was the local dealers were the chief, and we may say, the only purchasers. In flour at the close superfine could not have been sold at ever $3, and it is doubtful whether even that figure could have been obtained for a round lot. The sales of wheat reported to-day were remail at 41 75 to 41 96 for red and 41 90 to 91 35 for white, though choice lots might command a small advance. There has been no essential change in the market for orn since our last. The demand is of the most moderate character, and the market is dull, with sales to dealers from warens at $1 10 for ear and shelled. Groceries are very dull, and prices are lower, with sales of prime Rio coffee at the to 124c. We quote sugars dull and heavy at 21c to 22c for New Orleans, and Me to Me for refined.

The provision market is so nusettled that nothing definite can be arrived et. To-day neither buyers nor sellers seemed willing to fix a price, and nothing was lone. Bulk meets ere very dull. We continue to quot bacon at 18013%c for shoulders. 23%62c for clear sides and 23%c to 26c for hams. Country meats quiet, with but ittle offering Small sales were made from wagons of 17c to 17%e for shoulders, 21c to 21%e for clear sides and 21%e for hams. Lard is dull, with but a small inquiry at 21 %c to 22c for therees and 23 %c to 24c for kegs.

There was a good demand for money-heavy in some ses, and bankers discrunted sparingly, generally de clining paper that was not considered good, beyond cies. The grounds for this cantion need not taken piace.
